LILLIE'S LOCK!
OPENED IN ONE MINUTE!

NEW YORK, September 2, 1864.
F. TILLMAN, Esq., 318 Battery street,
Bet. Commercial and Clay, San Francisco.

DEAR SIR: WE NOTICE AN ADVERTISEMENT in your daily papers respecting the "security" of the "Lillie" lock. We are aware that you well understand this lock, and, of course, will not allow yourself to be annoyed by such representations. We have just sent for one of our men at the factory, and he, in our presence, opened one of Lillie's best safe locks, after it had been locked and the combination turned on,

By One Blow of the Hammer!

Against the knob on the outside, and thereby breaking the cast iron bolt on the inside.

The whole time occupied in opening the lock was about ONE MINUTE. We send you this lock that your friends may not be deceived by false representations, etc.

Respectfully, etc.,
A. E. TILTON,
WM. McFARLAND.

No Practical Lockpicker or Thimble-rigger are required to Operate the said Lillie Lock.

Any parties desirous of seeing the above mentioned lock, its insecurity and easy mode of opening the same, can call at

GLOUCESTER, March 26, 1864.
Messrs. TILTON & McFARLAND,
Safe Manufacturers, Boston, Mass.

Gentlemen: From representations made by Mr. Lillie I was induced to purchase one of his

So-called "Fire Proof Safes"

On the 18th of February last, a fire occurred in our block which destroyed a number of buildings, and our own with the rest. We trusted our books, papers and all in the safe. After the fire the so called "safe" was taken from the ruins, and on opening it we found that Everything was Destroyed.

We send you the safe, with what is left of the papers, and you will see that not one of them is legible or strong enough to sustain its own weight. Having the curiosity to know how our neighbors fared in this fire, we noticed McKenrie & Hardy just opening their safe (TILTON & McFARLAND'S make), and its contents were found to be

In Perfect Condition.

This led us to further investigation, and we found to our astonishment that from the large amount of combustible material in Messrs. McK. & H.'s cellar—such as lard, pork, etc.—their safe was subjected to a much greater heat than that of our own, we being in the clothing business and had but little in the cellar. There was another of Lillie's safes here subjected to the same fire, faring, however, no better than our own.

Very respectfully,
Your obedient servants,
[Signed:] GEO. L. CHESBRO & CO.

TILTON & McFARLAND'S SAFE!

This safe has been well known in California and the Eastern States. They have resisted all the fires on the Pacific coast, and we can point with satisfaction to the record that

I'VE BEEN THINKING.

I've been thinking, I've been thinking,
What a glorious world were this,
Did folks mind their own business more,
And mind their neighbors' less.
For instance, you and I, my friend,
Are sadly prone to talk
Of matters that concern us not,
And others' follies mock.

I've been thinking, that, if we'd begin
To mind our own affairs,
That possibly our neighbors might
Contrive to manage theirs.
We've faults enough at home to mend—
It may be true of others;
It would seem strange if it were not,
Since all mankind are brothers.

O, would that we had charity
For every man and woman!
Forgiveness is the mark of those
Who know "to err is human."
Then let us banish jealousy—
Let's lift our fallen brother,
And as we journey down life's road,
Do good to one another.

TERRIBLE TRAGEDY.

BILLY MULLIGAN KILLS TWO MEN.

THE MURDERER KILLED BY THE OFFICERS.

About 10 o'clock A. M. yesterday, a pistol shot was fired from a room in the second story of the St. Francis Hotel, corner of Dupont and Clay street, on the east side, the ball entering a Chinese store opposite, on Dupont street. Officer McMillan was detailed by Capt. Lees, of the Detectives, to investigate the matter, and immediately proceeded to the premises. Going to the entrance of room No. 21—from which it was evident the shot had been fired—he found the door barricaded with the bed and two large trunks, and Billy Mulligan standing inside with a drawn Colt's revolver (six-shooter). The officer called to him, when Mulligan asked: "What do you want, and who are you?" He told him his name, and said: "I want you." Mulligan replied that he did not want to hurt him, but that he must not come into that room. The officer then commenced talking to and reasoning with him, in order to pacify him and gain admission, but without effect. Detective Officer Chappelle then came up and went out on the balcony, which extended around the building at the second story; but as he reached the window of the room he was fired at, but fortunately not hit. McMillan then left the door and went down stairs to arm himself, when Mulligan came out and took up his position in the hall which runs through the centre of the building, near the stairway. A number of his friends then came to the foot of the stairs and tried to pacify him, but he still threatened to shoot any man who came up. Father Croke being sent for, came and also talked to him, but without inducing him to surrender. About 1 o'clock in the afternoon, one of Mulligan's friends, named Jack McNabb, stated that he was going up to where he was. He started, though advised by the parties present not to attempt it, but had not proceeded more than half way up the stairs when Mulligan shot him—the ball entering the breast. He walked down the stairs, however, and into the bar-room, where he fell into the arms of officer Chappelle, exclaiming: "He has killed me sure." He was taken to the office of Dr. Murphy, and died in about two and a half hours. By this time a crowd had collected in the streets from which a view of the building could be had, in order to witness the arrest and see what was done.

The officers, a large number of whom had in the meantime arrived, then disposed themselves around the buildings, and at numerous places inside, in order to seize the murderer whenever he made his appearance. Suddenly about half-past 2 o'clock he again appeared, this time at the corner window in the third story, fronting Clay street, and fired into the crowd on Dupont street, between Clay and Washington streets, the ball striking Mr. John Hart, Foreman of Eureka Hose Company, No. 4, in the breast, penetrating his heart, and killing him almost instantly. He then took up his position in a narrow hall, just inside of the window. It being evident by this time that the man was raving mad, and that further delay in his capture might cost the lives of other innocent men, the officers sent for their muskets, and immediately upon the reception of them stretched themselves at various places in the street for the purpose of shooting him when he should again appear. Two of them went into the second story of a small frame building occupied as a China wash-house, immediately opposite, on the northwest corner of Dupont and Clay streets, and stationed themselves at a window fronting on Clay street. They had waited but a few minutes, when Mulligan thrust his head cautiously, but only partially, around the corner of the room behind which he was standing, into the narrow passage-way leading to and about four feet from the front window, and pointed his cocked pistol at them, but before he could shoot, one of them, officer Hopkins, raised his musket and fired, shooting him through the head, killing him instantly, the ball entering near the center of the forehead, ranging slightly upward, and passing out at the back of his head, then glancing from the ceiling and passing entirely through a door at the end of the hall. His body was then placed in a coffin, and carried to the dead-house on Sacramento street, where Hart's body had already been taken. The body of McNabb had been removed to the office of Dr. Murphy. Mulligan had been for several days laboring under the effects of delirium tremens, and was perfectly crazy. He imagined that the Vigilance Committee—by whom it is well known he was exiled from this State—were again in existence and endeavoring to take him. Thursday night about 10 o'clock, he went to the City Prison, and told Officer Monks, who was in charge, that the Committee were after him to kill him, that he thought they would be doing it that night, and requested protection. Officer Monks, after some persuasion, induced him to enter the cell, where he was locked up and detained until an early hour in the morning, when he was discharged, he appearing to be much more quiet in mind.

The shot which killed Hart is supposed to have been intended for Officers Ellis and McMillian, as they were crossing the street at the time, and it passed immediately over their heads.

After Mulligan first came out of his room, he had complete control over the second and third stories of the building, no one daring to enter either, except once, when he allowed Mr. Jas. Keating to come upon the second floor while he was on the third, and talked to him for some minutes, but he finally drove him down. He seemed to have the idea that a large crowd was about the building, all of whom were watching for a chance to shoot him. He several times stated that he thought the Vigilance committee were hunting his life, but they should not have it. He kept a careful watch upon every portion of the building, walking frequently to every side of the second and third stories and looking out. In turning a corner of a room, or looking down stairs he would first thrust his cocked pistol out, and then peep cautiously around to see if the coast was clear. Once he allowed a man to bring him up a drink of brandy, covering him with his pistol, however, when about four steps from the top of the stairs, making him sit down the glass and return. All of his actions were cool and deliberate, exhibiting the deepest cunning of insanity and there is no doubt but that he would have killed one of the officers in the window opposite if officer Hopkins had not fired so quick and accurately.

Mulligan was a native of Ireland, but came to New York while quite young. He came here in the early days of California, and in the fall of 1850, shot a man named Anderson in the knee, at a dance house in Sonora, from the effect of which wound Anderson died in about three weeks. He afterwards resided principally in this city until his banishment by the Vigilance Committee in 1856, with the circumstances of which the public are familiar. A few years after this he shot a policeman in New York city, for which offense he was sentenced to a long imprisonment at Sing Sing. After remaining in the penitentiary a number of months he was granted a new trial, and eventually acquitted. Returning to this city sometime in the winter of 1863-4, he remained here a few weeks, and then went up to Austin, Reese River. There he fought a duel with Tom Coleman, a noted character. Eleven shots were fired, and Coleman was slightly wounded in two places. He came back from this place about a year ago, since which he has lived in the city, and his conducted himself peaceably until about two weeks since, when he had a fight with a man, in which he broke his jaw. He was arrested for this, and the case was still pending in the Police Court. He has a married sister residing in Sacramento, and a brother at Austin. The sister is expected to arrive to-night.

Jack McNabb was a young man, aged about 27 or 28 years. He was generally considered a fighting man, and a desperate character. In the summer of 1863, while intoxicated, he shot Officer Birdsall of Virginia, Nevada, through the lungs. The officer recovered after a long confinement. His mother and brother live in this city.

Hart was about the same age as McNabb. He had but recently buried his wife and child. Last evening the body of McNabb was removed to the residence of his mother, and that of Hart to the house of Eureka Hose Company No. 4, of which he was Foreman.

[From the Marysville Appeal.]

DON'T GIVE UP THE SHIP.

In the name of our dead and murdered President, we call upon Union men to stand firm and never surrender the ship—the Union party. We hope another sacrifice is not necessary to keep principle alive in our breasts. We hope it is not necessary that Andrew Johnson shall be assassinated to keep alive the Union fires. Immediately before the assassination of Lincoln, many Union men had put on so much "social amenity," that we felt there was danger of being captured by the beguiling snakes. Rebellion was fast being popularized. We remarked at the time, "but for the murder of our President we had doubt of the success of Gen. Grant as a candidate for sheriff in some obscure county, had he been a candidate." The loyal and patriotic sentiment of the people was again roused by that wicked act. Our patriotism, seasoned with vindictiveness, was again stirred from the depths, and we all renewed our solemn oaths that traitors, and traitor sympathizers, should suffer the penalties of their crimes—that the rebel leaders should be hung, and that their sympathizers, the Copperheads, should be forever disfranchised from office through the ballot-box.

But the body of our beloved President has scarcely reached its home in the West—the funeral rites have but ceased—the black habiliments of a nation's grief still hang over our doors and upon our arms—the sixty days of mourning have not expired—when we find Union men conspiring with Copperheads for the defeat of the Union party, and to reward Copperheads! Where is now our patriotism, and our honest indignation? Where are our oaths and our sacred pledges? Are rebels less guilty and less deserving of just punishment because they can be rebels no longer? Are their sympathizing friends in the North, the Copperheads, exonerated because there no longer remains a rebel army and a rebel cause to receive aid and comfort? Can we so soon forget the men who rejoiced at the success of Federal defeats, and were all aglee at Confederate victories? Is it possible that there are Union men who can now take into political affiliation the men who contributed by their acts and moral influence to starve Federal soldiers in Southern dungeons? Are there Union men in Yuba county who can caucus and plan with traitor sympathizers for the defeat of Union men who have stood true to their country at all times? We see them now in close consultation with men who on the 15th of April, when the bells tolled the murder of Lincoln, they held in abhorrence! Would their counsel have been heeded on the 15th of April? Would they be seen fraternizing with these men when in tears over the murder of Lincoln? Some of the Copperheads hypocritically mourned the loss of Lincoln. Others openly rejoiced at his assassination, and were seized and carried to prison. But the prison doors are now open, and the bold and secret assassinationists meet Union men and conspire for the defeat of true Union men! The loudest assassinationists are going about the streets urging Union men to join with them that their united votes may defeat the Union ticket! How many Union men can there be found who will join this conspiracy? We think not many. We believe that there are few such faithless, unprincipled Union men in the State.

The Union Party has held its primaries and nominating convention. The ticket at the head of our paper has been fairly nominated in accordance with usages of the party. Every Union man of principle is bound to support it. He who refuses to render it a cheerful and hearty support is a skin-deep Unionist, and will be branded as a political traitor and bolter. Every honorable man will look upon such with mingled feelings of contempt and scorn. He will be held as a semi-Copperhead, and the suspicion will be justified that he has acted with the Union party the past four years, not because he was a true friend to the country, but for the spoils of office!

The Union Party evidently is going through the molting season. Union men are now on trial. The time has come when it is to be determined who are true and who are false men—who are men of principle, and who are demagogues and office seekers and place hunters. If we have the latter among us enjoying the confidence of the party, the times appear to be ripe for the denouncement. They may be known by the company they keep. They are cheek-by-jowl with Copperheads. Their heads are seen close together. Copperheads tell them they have been badly treated, and that if they will bolt and make other nominations they will vote with them! It appears to us that this promise of affiliation ought to be enough to satisfy true Union men where they stand and what is their duty. Every man must be true to the organization. The Union party cannot be defeated. It is the party of the Government, and its platform the Union itself. Its birth-day was in the hour of our country's greatest peril, and it was baptized in the blood of a half million of freemen. The Union party will remain the dominant party of the country for a generation. It must be the ruling party, else the lives of a million of men have been sacrificed in vain. What party can reconstruct the States, and maintain the principles we have fought for, but the Union party? Destroy the Union party, and what security have we that the freedmen will remain freemen? If the Union party in this State is disrupted, what assurance have we that the amendment to the Constitution abolishing slavery will be approved by the next Legislature? The Union men who may be urged into bolting the party, must remember that there is danger of the Copperheads gaining power through our division, and that if we are defeated, California will vote with New Jersey against this amendment. We urge Union men to stand by the organization. All Union men who participated in our primaries obligated themselves as honorable men to abide the nominations. He who fails to do so, invites a political record as dishonorable as that of Copperheads.

THE SLANDERER.

Of all the characters which go to make up the summit of degradation and loathing among people, the slanderer bears off the palm. Too cowardly to accuse, too craven to meet his victim and too venomous to be convinced, he trails along in path of filth and slime poisoning the very air, secretly scattering his virus over the purest and most upright. In dark corners and by-ways, in the dark and damp of a cellar, under the roof of crime and infamy, in toad-haunted caverns, he prepares the death-dealing distillation of character and reputation. No association is too sacred, no tie too dear, no friendship too true to escape his malice and hate. The fairer and purer the victim, so increases the delight of the poisoner. Neither man nor woman is spared the shaft of his malevolence. Clothing his words in speciousness and hypocrisy, he pours into the ear of the latter the well prepared prescription for doubt and misgiving; so nicely are the flowers of his detestable growth strewn around, that the former cannot fail to tread upon and inhale the poison. Away, in some obscure spot, he watches the effect of the hell-bane he has planted in their bosoms, and the greater the anguish and sorrow shown, so is his joy enhanced. For these "character murderers" hold they say, as their authors for the misery they bring. Criminal themselves in the pursuit of life, they seek to cover up their own infamy by undermining and attacking the noblest structures of God's handiwork. Without courage or honor, steeped in disgrace and wretchedness, they fatten and grow fat on seared hearts, hopes destroyed, minds anguished, and ambition lost. The infant in the cradle, the prattling child, youth, maturity and age, all come under their ban, and must take their places to swell up the great procession of the slandered which has preceded them. With jealousy they watch the communion of of the just and pure; it is their bounden duty to see that it does not thrive; if it did, their mission of sin on earth would be unfulfilled. With a leering eye, a shrug of the shoulder or a covert word dropped in good time and place, the destruction commences. Unless the utmost confidence prevails, unless those who are marked for the sacrifice are true to each other, affirming, believing and relying on their own known rectitude, the plot succeeds, and another triumph is added to their scroll which is draped in vileness and disgrace. The slander travels with the lightning's flash, the refutation with the speed of a tortoise. To live it down requires courage, determination and patience, and the man or woman who turns with fear from the ordeal, loses more than half the battle. Those who attempt to defend themselves from slander are short-sighted; in our judgment it is an acknowledgment of guilt, because the slanderer, when he finds his potion is thrown aside with fearlessness and contempt, turns aside from that victim to find one more susceptible. Slanderers and vilifiers are known in the community in which they draw their fatal breath, and in limited communities particularly their black art is easily discovered, if the people would but watch and detect. Every slanderer is a hypocrite, the one is as necessary to the other as is sun and moonlight to day and night. Gaining a name for probity by lying and deceit, they are more dangerous in the work they have in hand, because there are those who are ever ready to listen and believe. A whisper does it all, which is not heard by the victim, neither is the utterer seen. So long as there are those to purchase slander, so long will it be disposed of in quantities to suit. The supply is always equal to the demand; there is at all times some cowardly cur and knave to buy and dispense it, for

Slander, that worst of poisons, ever finds
An easy entrance to ignoble minds.

It is a cheap commodity to those who traffic in it, but the deep misery and pain which follow its consumption, is incalculable beyond human computation. If there is not a superhell in store for the slanderer, then God's justice is not manifest.—S. F. Spirit of the Times.

ARTEMUS WARD ON THE DRAMA.

"Mr. Ward" has been annoyed by the remarks of ignorant people upon his great show. Many persons declare that his "wax figgers" are not of a character elevated and refined. He says:

"I maintain that wax figgers is more elevation than all the plays ever written. Take Shakspeer for instance. People think he's great things, but I contend quite the reverse to the contrary. What sort of sense is thar to King Leer, who goes round cussin his darters, chawing hay and throwing straws at folks, and larfing like a silly old koot, and making a ass of himself generally.

Thare's Mrs. Macbeth—she's a nice kind of a woman to have ain't she—a puttin old Mac, her husband, to slaying Duncan with a cheese knife, while he's paying a friendly visit to thar house. O, its mighty morality i spose, when she larfs wildly and sez, 'gin me the daggers—i'll let his bowels out,' or words to that effeck—i say this is all strictly proper, i spose? That Jack Fawlstaff is likewise an immoral old cuss, take him as you may, and Hamlit is as crazy as a loon. Thare's Richard Third—people think he's grate things, but i look upon him in the lite of a monster. He kills everybody he takes a notion to, in cold blood, and then goes to sleep in his tent. Bimeby he wakes up and yells for a hoss, so he can go orf and kill sum more people. If he's not a fit specimen for the gallis, then I shud like tu no war yu find em? Thare's Iergo, who is more onery nor pizen. See how shamefully he treated that highly respectable injun gentleman, Mr. Otheller, makin him for to believe his wife was too thick with Casheo. Obsarve how Iergo got Casheo drunk as a biled owl with corn whiskey, in order to carry out his sneakin desires. See how he works Mr. Otheller's feelins up so that he goze and makes Desdemony swaller a piller, which caused her deth. But i must stop. At some future time i shall continue my remarks on the drammar, in which i shall show the vast superiority of wax figgers, snaix, and the fixins in an intellectooal pint of view.

BURIED ALIVE.—A strange event has just occurred at a village near Saumur, (Maine-et-Loire) France. An old man named Grangereau, was interred some days back without any certificate of his decease having been given by a physician, as required by law. After the funeral service had been read, the sexton began to fill up the grave, but was startled by hearing a rapping noise, which he thought proceeded from the coffin. He listened attentively, and was convinced that his ears had not deceived him; a woman who was praying at a grave close by, also heard the noise. The sexton ran to inform the mayor and cure, but the former was absent, and the latter merely referred him to the family of the deceased. Nothing was, however, done to ascertain whether the poor man was really alive or not, and the grave was filled up. Rumors soon got abroad that Grangereau had been buried alive, and when they came to the knowledge of the Procureur Imperial of Saumur, he instantly proceeded to the village to institute an inquiry, the result of which is not yet known.

A NEW style of pavement costing about two dollars per square foot is about to be tried at Troy. Its distinguishing features are alternate lines of flagstone, two feet wide and six inches thick, divided from each other by three feet of cobble-stones. The wheels run on the former, the horses travel on the latter.

A PERSON inquiring at one of the railroad stations what time the 7:45 train went, was told a quarter to eight. "Bless me!" he exclaimed, "you are always changing the time of this line."

SPECIE BASIS.

The Virginia (Nev.) Union, in discussing the policy of conducting business upon a specie basis, replies as follows to a cotemporary:

The San Francisco Bulletin in reply to our remark that neither the passage of a Specific Contract Law at the East nor the repeal of ours here, would change the basis on which business is transacted, declares that the basis is the same here as there; or in other words that business is done in both places on a specie basis. The Bulletin says:

"The Union would have told the whole truth if it had added that the basis East, as well as here, always has been and is now metallic; else why does Government promise to redeem its paper issues in gold ultimately, and why does the value of paper currency obstinately remain less than that of gold, and why does Secretary McCullough promise to bring back the Government to specie payments as soon as possible? Business here is done on the basis prescribed by Congress," which is a specie basis, and until Congress closes the Mint which turns out annually $20,000 in gold and silver coin, fresh from our prolific placers and ledges, that basis will remain the same. Whether it may or not some day be found convenient and profitable to establish National Banks, and to use their issues here to a certain extent, is another question which can be determined by circumstances and the free action of business men, without the need of any mischievous tampering with the State Constitution to enlarge the public expenditure and damage the public credit."

The Bulletin must either acknowledge its mistake or accuse Secretary McCullough of ignorance of his business, for the latter has repeatedly expressed his determination to bring the business of the country to a specie basis as soon as possible. We have here a specie basis and a specie currency, while at the East business is done on a currency basis, and specie is not often seen there in trade. The basis on which business is done in any country is the currency in which accounts are kept, contracts made and prices regulated. "The basis prescribed by Congress" and used at the East, is the legal tender currency, which certainly is not the basis of trade here. It is true that Congress has prescribed two lawful currencies, but surely the Bulletin will not seriously claim that the transactions of the Government and the business of the country east of here are carried on upon a specie basis. If so, why this talk about "returning" to a specie basis? The Bulletin says that "the basis East, as well as here, always has been and is now metallic." This cannot be true since the passage of the Legal Tender Act, for that Act was rendered necessary by the demand for a larger circulating medium than the metallic currency afforded. The supply of specie could not be increased to meet the increased demand, and therefore Congress had to "change the base" of its financial operations about the time McClellan changed his base. There was not specie enough in the civilized world to enable the Government to pay the current expenses of the war in gold and silver, and it had to resort to its credit. Not being able to realize money fast enough by the sale of its bonds (for foreigners would not buy them freely then,) the treasury notes were issued and made legal tenders "in payment for all debts public and private," so that they might circulate as money among the people. The Government could command a supply of that kind of currency, but it could not of specie. We know of no one who does not regret the necessity of issuing them. There are a few, however, a very few, who do not admit the necessity for the Government to use any other currency but gold and silver, forgetting that the circulating medium in the United States is fully $1,000,000,000, and that not more than one-fifth or sixth of the amount in specie. After the expenses of the Government are reduced to a peace footing the amount of the circulating medium of the country cannot be safely reduced below $500,000,000 of which probably one-half would be specie. For the Government to call in its treasury notes at once and retire them from circulation would be a greater evil than to issue double the amount, because it would deprive the channels of trade of one-half the trade which is now flowing in them. It would cramp trade and restrict the business of the country so much as to paralyze it and destroy its prosperity. The Government will retire its issues gradually, and thus in time the two currencies will be equalized, and the business of the country brought to a specie basis.

To bring the business of the country to a specie basis, it is not necessary to reject all paper money as some suppose. Many do not comprehend the fact that doing the business of the country on a specie basis does not mean doing it with coin alone. It is impossible to accumulate specie enough in the country to supply a circulating medium for all the purposes of trade, and hence it is necessary to use paper in part. Prior to the war this paper money was supplied by local or State banks, the issues of which ought to be redeemable in specie but were not so always. The General Government has substituted a national system of banking to supply a circulating medium, which is universally acknowledged to be superior to the paper money used heretofore, as it is of a uniform value and a legal tender. Repeal the legal tender Act as soon as the treasury notes have retired, and let the national banks be placed on the same footing as State banks and required to redeem in specie, and how much longer would it require to bring the business of the country to a specie basis than it will under the present system? The State banks had suspended specie payment before the legal tender Act was passed, and if it were repealed now their notes would decline largely below their present value. The Government credit has advanced and carried up their credit with it because based upon it; and yet the quantity of specie in the country has not increased in the same proportion that the paper currency has increased in value. If the business of the Government was conducted on a specie basis, as the Bulletin declares it is, the value of the paper currency would have increased no faster than the supply of gold in the country was increased; whereas, the fact is, that the paper currency has increased in gold value several hundred millions since January while the increase in the supply of gold is scarcely perceptible. This is because the paper currency is based on the credit of the Government, instead of gold. Therefore, when that credit is made equal to gold, by the payment of all Government obligations in gold as they become due, then the legal tenders will be equivalent to gold and the business of the country will be done practically on a specie basis, though really on the currency basis, for both will be alike in value.—Virginia Union.

SARCASTIC CUSS.—North Adams is known as a pleasant village in the Berkshire section of Massachusetts. A few days since a mysterious gentleman, a stranger, engaged board at the village hotel. He desired that no person would speak to him except the landlord. He was good looking and well dressed. Several ladies endeavored to make his acquaintance, but failed. Finally, bolder ones appointed a committee of five to visit him. They did so, and stated their business. He eyed them and replied, "I am a stranger and a criminal. I was convicted in New York of a heavy crime. The judge sentenced me to eight years in Sing Sing prison, or to live in North Adams six months. I chose the latter." The ladies retired, and the stranger was not again disturbed.

MR. FORSYTHE, a prominent citizen of Chicago, and two of his daughters, have been arrested for disloyalty. When Mr. Lincoln was murdered, and other houses draped in mourning, they hung up a Rebel flag, bound in green, while in their parlor was displayed a portrait of Booth, wreathed with laurel.

CATHOLIC SERVICE.—Rev. Father Callan, of Forest Hill, will hold Divine Service at the Theater tomorrow (Sunday) morning, commencing at 10 o'clock. A. M. All are invited to attend.

WE have just returned from the new and rich diggings at Meadow Lake. Wednesday morning last we started for the new district, at which place we arrived about 5 o'clock, P. M., where we found accommodations of every description exceedingly scarce, that is, if we had relied upon the hospitality of those who had frequently extended to us pressing invitations to visit them; but fortunately there was a Mayne chance which we had not before calculated upon, but of which we availed ourself, notwithstanding the Hart-lessness of the friend who appeared so anxious to see us. In this connection we cannot refrain from giving all praise to the Hotel de Potosi, presided over by those hospitable gentlemen, Messrs. Molter & Mayne, who pride themselves upon making all who visit their shebang comfortable and at home. May their shadows never grow less, and we sincerely hope that the indications as shown in their claims —the Potosi and Badger—may be fully realized by an abundant yield of the precious metals. In fact we feel that our wish is but a forecast of what they are certain to have, as the Potosi is now considered one of the best leads in the district, and no persons need the smiles of fortune more than our old friends Charley Mayne and Jake Molter. The Excelsior claim, however, is considered the best claim in the district, prospecting from the croppings some $40,000. This company have run a tunnel into their ledge some sixty feet, and from the indications will strike their ledge in about three weeks. They intend erecting a mill as soon as possible and will commence as soon as the mill is erected. It is supposed that the croppings of this ledge alone will be more than sufficient to defray the expenses of erecting a twelve stamp mill. From what we are able to gather, Excelsior District is considered by all who have any experience in quartz mining the richest ever discovered on the Pacific coast. Large numbers of persons are daily flocking to these mines, and a site for a town has already been laid out, at which Mr. Friedman and Mr. Simms already have stores, and we understood whilst there some dozen town lots had been taken up for building purposes. We would here recommend to those who may visit Meadow Lake district the stores of Messrs. Friedman and Simms, as they have everything necessary to persons on a prospecting tour, and are kind and accommodating gentlemen.

We do not hesitate in saying that this district is destined at no distant day to become the most famous for wealth yet discovered on this coast or anywhere else. There is no ledge that has yet been taken up, but proven to be fabulously rich to the satisfaction of parties interested, and it only needs time to become a settled fact.

To arrive at these diggings persons can turn off 1½ miles beyond Crystal Lake, 19 miles above Dutch Flat, at which place Mr. Polley has completed a good trail, saving from one to two miles to the Lake by the old road by Heaton's.

ODD FELLOWS INSTALLATION.—On Wednesday evening last, the installation of the newly elected officers of Olive Lodge No. 81, took place at their hall in Dutch Flat. The following named persons have been installed as officers for the ensuing term: J. H. Boke, N. G.; W. H. Keeler, R. S.; John Waters P. S.; R. Hudepohl, T.; T. King, Librarian. Trustees for the ensuing year: B. F. Moore, N. W. Blanchard, Allen Towle.

The weather during the greater part of the week has been cold and chilly, in marked contrast with the insufferably warm days of the week previous. On Thursday night fires were lighted in several of the saloons, and by the satisfied looks of those around the stove, we judge that a fire was comfortable. The same night, we were treated with a slight shower, but as it lasted but a moment, the "clerk of the weather" must have bottled up his wrath, and suffered us to enjoy the dust a short time longer

THEIR BASIS OF REPRESENTATION.—We have been asked several times the basis of the representation of the bolters of this county. We are unable to inform our friends, unless it is upon the money that Low and company have scattered over the country.

HIGH OLD PRIMARIES.—The Placer Herald, the organ of the bolters of this county, and the palliator of the assassinationists of President Lincoln, published a call emanating from R. C. Poland, alias "Old Tecumseh," and John Barnes, to the UNION men of Placer county to hold primary meetings and elect delegates to a county convention. The call was poorly circulated, but wherever seen, so far as we have heard, was looked upon with derision and contempt. Well, things were to have happened at each precinct last Saturday evening, but whether they actually took place either in this town or Gold Run we have been unable to ascertain after the most diligent inquiry. Many persons here were anxious to witness the opening of the polls in both places, but from the extreme reticence observed by the leading spirits, were unable to do so. We are somewhat inclined to the belief that the disaffected have thought better of their threats and given it up. If there was an election held here to send down delegates, we venture to assert, from what we know of the material conducting this affair, that two or three fixed it up, named delegates, made out proxies and sent themselves off rejoicing at the unanimity with which they concluded the arduous duties of "Breaking up the Union party," because they did not succeed before the convention authorized BY THE PEOPLE.

Since writing the above, the "mountain has labored, and brought forth a mouse!" The sore-head convention has been held! The candidates are nominated! In pursuance of the call signed by "R. C. Poland, President," and "John Barnes, Secretary," the primaries were held and the delegates appointed, but when, where or by whom they were conducted, no man, in this township at least, can give an opinion or form an approximate idea, excepting, probably the delegates themselves. Unlike the proceedings of the Union primaries, which were conducted as open as the day, the bolters did their work at the dead hour of night, in some out-of-the-way room, and cooked up credentials bearing the names of the requisite number of delegates, which were for the most part represented in the Convention by the magical word "proxy," and sent them forward to Auburn, to be used in the attempt to disrupt the Union party, at the instigation of a few defeated candidates for nomination, who sighed for the "loaves and fishes of office." Twenty-two delegates were present in the Convention, the balance being represented by "proxy," a very convenient character to do the work for men who either never were delegated, or who were too cowardly to brave public opinion after breaking their solemn pledges, and go openly to the Convention in which they were entitled to a seat according to the credentials forwarded. The convention was called to order by P. H. Sibley, who was a candidate for nomination before the Union Convention not three weeks ago for the office to which he has been nominated by the bolters, who made a solemn pledge to support the nominees of that Convention, who has been before almost every Convention held in the county for years as a candidate for some office or other, and who now has the proud honor of having been before two county conventions in three weeks for the same office, and failing to receive the nomination from the first, thankfully took it from the second. A Temporary Chairman was then selected, in the person of Mr. T. L. Chamberlin, who took the Chair, and made a most impressive speech—according to popular report. S. M. Jamison was elected Temporary Secretary. The usual committees were then appointed, and the "True Union Convention" adjourned until 2 o'clock, P. M.

At the appointed hour the bolters "came to time," and the Committee on Permanent Officers reported in favor of the "irrepressible" Sibley for President, John R. Gwynn, Vice President, and W. V. Cleveland, Secretary. On taking the Chair, Mr. Sibley launched forth into one of his truthful and enthusiastic perorations, in which his devotion to the Union was shown to the Convention in the strongest light, sundry allusions made to conventions in which he had sat in former years and the part he had taken therein, and stating that the pledges he had taken in good faith to support the nominees of the Union Convention were mere empty-sounding words to tickle the ears of the people then and there assembled.

The first business in order being the nomination of Senator, L. B. Arnold was proposed by somebody and nominated by acclamation. A speech was made by the nominee, of course, but as it was not stenographically reported, we are unable to present it to our readers. The succeeding nominations were all made by acclamation, with one exception, which we will give in its regular course.

Nominations for Assembly being next in order, Titus Ewing, of Township No. 4, Rev. J. M. Hinman, of Township No. 5, and J. B. Stevens, of Iowa Hill, received the nomination.

For Sheriff, C. J. Garland was proposed and nominated, although it is said by the knowing ones that he had refused to allow his name to come before the Convention, as he would not accept. We cannot believe that Mr. Garland's nomination was made with his approval.

John Barnes was unanimously nominated for Treasurer, a proceeding which we think will bear to be taken with a considerably large-sized grain of allowance.

Daniel Choate, of Ophir, was nominated for Recorder, and upon this office hinged the first ballot of the Convention, Billy Mullen being his competitor. Mr. C. received 86 votes, and Mullen only 13, making a very handsome majority for the former.

S. M. Jamison was nominated for County Clerk, and gave vent to his thankfulness in a small speech.

"And now cometh," Phil. W. Thomas, and placeth in nomination for District Attorney his old friend P. H. Sibley, aforetime candidate for divers and sundry offices which taketh cash from the pockets of ye people and placeth it in his own. Owing to the "immense popularity" of Phil, Sibley was nominated by acclamation!

A. H. Goodrich was nominated for Superintendent of Common Schools, and then came the nominations for minor offices, which are to be filled as follows: Surveyor, C. Cadwalder; Public Administrator, S. Beck; Coroner, A. Bicknell.

The "True Union Convention" then dissolved, the farce was played out, the actors on their way to their homes, and the bolters, sore-heads, or by whatever other name they may be known, disappeared, and will be heard of no more, unless very slightly at the coming election.

LECTURE.—Our nominee for County Surveyor, Prof. R. H. Raymond, will give a Mathematical Lecture this evening at Golden Eagle Hall, which will be something new, and probably entertaining and instructive.

Read the posters, then go and see, and get acquainted with the man. There is no impropriety in ladies attending this lecture.

ARRIVAL OF COLFAX AND PARTY.

On Tuesday last, the 16th inst., Hon. Schuyler Colfax, accompanied by Messrs. Charles Crocker, E. B. Crocker, ex-Gov. Stanford, of Sacramento, and his traveling companions, Gov. Bross and Mr. Richardson, arrived in our town. The people were unaware of the approach of the distinguished visitor until too late to march out anything like a respectable escort to give them a welcome to our midst and extend to them the hospitalities of the place. However, the Pacific Guard, Major Kopp, commanding, mustered about one-third of their number, and, accompanied by a few of our citizens, met and stopped the stage a little way out of town, where Colfax, who was riding outside, arose and briefly addressing the squad, concluded by proposing "Three cheers for the men who have borne the brunt of the fight and the heat of the battle to overthrow the rebellion and perpetuate the liberties of mankind." It was responded to with hearty good will, when the military, led by martial music, and followed by the citizens preceded the stage through town to the Dutch Flat Hotel, where everybody broke ranks and smiled a welcome. While awaiting the exchange of horses, Colfax mounted the stage, and paid a few well-timed compliments to the fair sex, of whom there were many present. He said that his companions had no moral or legal right to fall in love with the ladies, as they were married men; but, as for himself, he was single, and had a perfect natural right to do so, and since starting out on his journey had done so to a considerable extent. [Laughter.] He spoke of Florence Nightingale of whom England was justly proud, and whose praise had been sounded by the whole enlightened world for her strenuous and successful endeavors to comfort and relieve the sick and wounded soldiers of her native country; but, he said, during our great rebellion, America has produced her like by thousands; women who have buckled the sword upon their husbands, presented the musket to their sons, and with a "God bless you!" pressed their hands for the last time this side of the grave, as they marched forth to fight for their country and the freedom of mankind, and parting with everything dearest to them this side of Heaven, had filled the hospitals all over our land with their kindly offices. He closed amid a storm of applause, which was continued until the stage was driven rapidly away. They left for Donner Lake at 2:30 P. M., and, returning, reached this place at 9 o'clock A. M. on Wednesday, en route to Marysville, via Nevada and Grass Valley, looking none the worse for their quick trip to the Summit.

HOW THEY ACTED.

On the 22d day of June last, a correspondent of the Nevada Gazette visiting from Gold Run, near this place, upon the representations of persons whom he considered good Union men, indulged in some strictures upon the political antecedents of the nominee of the late Union County Convention for Senatorial honors. The communication was published on the 26th, and sent to Auburn where it was attempted to be used to the prejudice of Mr. Bradley by those who are now most instrumental and industrious in creating a division in the ranks of the party in this county. The correspondent having become satisfied that he was imposed upon, takes the first opportunity of correcting any misrepresentations he made upon statement of those he is now convinced were endeavoring to injure a good and worthy gentleman, to foist upon the people men entirely incompetent from want of all qualifications which go to make up a good and faithful public servant. The following is the letter referred to, and we challenge the bolters to a refutation:

GOLD RUN, July 14th, 1865.

ED. ENQUIRER:—In an article penned by me as correspondent Occasional, to one of the Nevada papers, something was hinted about the political precedents of E. L. Bradley, the Union Nominee for State Senator, from Placer county, and his unfitness for the position; all of which were based upon representations made by his political, or rather partisan opponents in this place, to secure delegates against him at the County Convention. Having learned the true condition of political affairs here, and the means used to injure Mr. Bradley's political prospects, (not a word ever having been said against him as a man and a citizen,) I shall, of course retract the purport of those reflections, and attach the blame where it properly belongs. NEVADA.

INDIAN TROUBLES.—The Colorado papers say that the difficulties with the Indians of the West have attained a magnitude never before reached in the history of that portion of the American Continent. The principal tribes known to be hostile and at war with the United States, are the Soiux, Cheyennes, Arapahoes, Kioways, Comanches and Apaches. The Chippewas are also making hostile demonstrations in Minnesota, and the late outrage on the Little Blue was committed by the Pawnees. The leading warriors of those tribes declare their bitter and relentless hostility to the whites, but say that, if paid a sufficient sum, they will remain quiet for a time. The Denver News says that it does not believe there is any efficiency in giving them presents, and that so long as that policy is pursued, the communication between Denver, Salt Lake City and other Western cities and those of the East will be broken and uncertain. Prompt and decisive measures are urged for the putting down of these hostile demonstrations by the force of the general Government.

FIRE IN MARYSVILLE.—About two o'clock on the morning of the 11th instant, a fire broke out in the extensive feed and sale stables of Joshua Davis, corner of A and Fourth streets. When discovered the fire had made such headway that it was impossible to save anything. Besides the building, the following contents were destroyed: 2,000 bushels grain, 50 tons hay, 14 horses, 20 mules, 4 eight-mule wagons, two of which were loaded with goods for the interior and one with lumber, together with several small wagons and buggies. The entire loss will approximate to $50,000. There was an insurance on the building of $2,000. During the progress of the fire fire, while men were endeavoring to rescue some articles, the east wall of the building fell, burying several persons who stood underneath. The following are the casualties: John W. Kay, employee in the California Express, killed; Isaac Ellis, wood and hide dealer, killed; William Johnson, teamster, severely injured—will probably die; Walter Otis, a young man whose back was broken—he will probably die; William Smith, stage proprietor between Oroville and Quincy, leg broken. Several others received greater or less injuries.

At noon the same day, the Excelsior livery stable, on D street, between Third and Fourth, owned by J. Eckert, was also destroyed by fire. Most of the contents, excepting grain and hay, were saved, and the loss on the building is said to be covered by insurance.

ALLUDING to the arrival of Matilda Heron in New York, a correspondent of the Call gossips about the circumstance as follows:

"Rumor has it that by the death of her brother in Philadelphia, she will inherit some seventy-five thousand dollars. I doubt it. That brother cast her off, as well as her sister, some years ago, and that is what drove both to the stage. When Matilda became a celebrity, I believe he reacknowledged her, particularly after she married Stoepel. Whether, in acknowledging her he determined to leave her any part of his fortune, is the question. I don't think he died worth seventy-five thousand dollars, altogether. Still, it is hard to say how rich some men might not become during the war."

WE learn that sore-heads abound in Placer as well as in this county, and that the Low faction, defeated at the primaries, have inaugurated a movement similar to that of Kent, Hawley and Sears in this county. We are satisfied that it is a part of the Low game to inaugurate the same movement wherever he is beaten, and we believe that Low is the instigator in these bolts.—Transcript.

Yes, sir; it is a Low game; such as no honorable politician will stoop to, after presenting his claims before the people.

NOTICE the call of the members of the Central Committee from Townships Nos. Three and Four for holding primary elections on the 22nd to elect delegates to nominate a Supervisor for District No. 2, and Justices of the Peace, Constables, and Road Commissioners for Township No. 4. Convention of delegates to meet at Illinoistown on Monday, July 24th, at 11 o'clock A. M.

AN Indiana paper refused lately to publish eulogiums gratis, but added: "We will publish the simple announcement of the death of our friends, with pleasure."

UNITED STATES 7-30 LOAN.

BY AUTHORITY OF THE SECRETARY OF THE Treasury, the undersigned has assumed the General Subscription Agency for the sale of United States Treasury Notes, bearing seven and three-tenths per cent. interest per annum, known as the SEVEN-THIRTY LOAN.

These Notes are issued under date June 15th, 1865, and are payable three years from that time, in currency, or are convertible, at the option of the holder, into

United States 5-20 Six per cent.

GOLD BEARING BONDS

These bonds are now worth a premium of nine per cent. including gold interest from November, which makes the actual profit on the 7-30 loan at current rates, including interest, about 10 per cent. per annum, besides its EXEMPTION FROM STATE AND MUNICIPAL TAXATION, WHICH ADDS FROM ONE TO THREE PER CENT. MORE, according to the rate levied on other property. The interest is payable in currency semi-annually, by coupons attached to each note which may be cut off and sold to any bank or banker.

The interest amounts to

One cent per day on a $50 note.
Two cents per day on a $100 note.
Ten cents per day on a $500 note.
Twenty cents per day on a $1,000 note.
One dollar per day on a $5,000 note.

Notes of all denominations named will be promptly furnished upon receipt of subscriptions. This is now offered by the Government, and it is confidently expected that its superior advantages will make it the Great Popular Loan of the People.

THE ONLY LOAN IN MARKET

Less than $300,000,000 of the loan authorized by the last Congress, are now on the market.

This amount at the rate at which it is being absorbed, will all be subscribed for within four months, when the notes will undoubtedly command a premium, as has uniformly been the case on closing the subscriptions to other Loans.

In order that citizens of every town and section of the country may be afforded facilities for taking the loans, the National Bank, State Banks, and Private Bankers throughout the country have generally agreed to receive subscriptions at par. Subscribers will select their own agents, in whom they have confidence, and who only are to be responsible for the delivery of the notes for which they receive orders.

LETTER FROM GOLD RUN.

GOLD RUN, July 13th, 1865.

EDITOR ENQUIRER:—Since my last epistle, the exuberance of feeling produced by the 4th of July has completely subsided, and people are again pursuing the "even tenor of their way" as heretofore; in fact a sort of reaction seems to have taken place, an unusual quiet reigns around and people generally seem to be in a meditative mood, probably musing with silent satisfaction upon the glory of the 4th which has just gone by, compared with the four previous ones. There is therefore very little current news and consequently you must expect a short letter this week. By the way, I visited your "sanctum sanctorum" yesterday for the purpose of conferring with you upon matters of considerable importance, and to my surprise, I found the editorial tripod standing in an isolated condition, without its usual occupant. Upon inquiry as to your probable whereabouts, I learned that you had been seen mounted on a mule which was almost hidden from view by blankets, packages of Bologna sausages, crackers, &c., leaving these precincts in a Quixotic manner, accompanied by a military gentleman, who I understood had thrown away his sword and joined issues with you in an expedition to discover your "pile," in the neighborhood of Meadow Lake. I hope that this "pile" may prove to be a regular pyramid, and that you may return in time to receive this important communication. We still continue to get out gold here. Brogan, Johnson & Co. cleaned up $1800 a short time ago, after a ten days run, being the same amount which they got in the previous run of twelve days, showing conclusively that their ground is improving. The Golden Gate Company also cleaned up and got $1600, after a run of sixteen days. This is a smaller result than is usual with them, but they were washing a low bank, and could not get down their regular quantity of dirt. Landed property is at present held in high estimation around Gold Run, in fact, real estate is at a premium. Quite a warlike encounter took place between two gentlemen, which goes to show that lots are of considerable value in this district. The "casus belli" originated in an attempt between them to discover who was the rightful owner of a certain valuable piece of property adjoining Bradley's reservoir and being unable to adjust the matter satisfactorily according to parliamentary rules, they resorted to "force of arms" to decide it, and I have not as yet been able to learn, who is the holder of the original title as the battle still wages.

Our people were congregated on Tuesday for the purpose of feasting their eyes on the redoubtable "Colfax and party," but although we raised our flag and made other hospitable demonstrations they did not deign to call upon us. No more at present from

Yours, truly, QUID NUNC.

LETTER FROM ARIZONA.—We publish the following extract from a letter written by "Little Johnny" —our John—to his father, dated "Tubac, Arizona, May 22d, 1865." It may possess some interest for our readers in this place, who all know him:

* * We left Presidio, San Franciscon on the 31st of March, and arrived here May 14th. We had a pretty heavy march of it, sometimes having to go from 36 to 45 miles with only one canteen of water. The country from San Pedro, Los Angeles county, to Tucson, Arizona, with the exception of the Maricopa and Pimo valleys, is a vast desert, nothing of note being raised along the route. The country where we now are is the best I have yet seen in this section, there being plenty of timber, and any amount of good farming land. It is also a good game country; bear, antelope, deer, turkeys, rabbits and other kinds of game being found in abundance, although it is dangerous to go out hunting in parties of less than three or four at a time, as the Apache Indians are very troublesome. We have a very good time here; not much duty to do, and have got good officers. We expect to remein here the balance of our time.

THE PIUTES AND THE FOURTH.—In an article on the participation of the colored people in the celebration of the Fourth, the Virginia Union gives the following account of the Piute portion of the procession:

The procession in this city presented a sight which suggests some thoughts pertinent to this subject of the mingling of the races on such an occasion. The Piutes, headed by young Winnemucca, the war chief, Sam Brown, followed at the end of the procession, where the negroes would have been if they had participated in the celebration. No objection that we have heard was made by any one, but on the contrary, it was regarded as very appropriate and amusing, being altogether an impromptu arrangement not mentioned in the programme. Was any white man's dignity compromised by the presence of the poor copper-colored aborigines? We think none of our citizens felt themselves lowered in their own estimation by it. We have not heard the opinion expressed that the Indians were made the equal of the whites, by following them in the procession; yet we think the effect upon the Indians was to elevate them in their own estimation and that of our citizens. It undoubtedly had a beneficial effect upon them without injuring anybody, and its repetition ought to be encouraged.

EXCELSIOR DISTRICT.—We find the following item in relation to the new quartz mines in the Virginia Enterprise of the 8th instant.

Mr. Charles A. Parker, who has just returned to this city, from a trip to the mines of Excelsior District, furnishes us with many items in regard to that region. The Excelsior lead, of which so much has been said, is in the North Fork of the South Yuba. The general formation of the region is granite. In this formation a vast number of leads of all sizes are found. There are in the vicinity numerous lakes and mountain streams and an abundance of timber. Two stores, two butcher shops, a mill or two and any number of miners' cabins are being erected in the district. A town site has been located near the California lead, one on the south-east side of Kidd's reservoir, and still another on the shore of Damarat Lake. In the soil about many of the leads from 25 cents to $4 (?) to the pan may be obtained. In the course of another week a boarding house will be in full blast in the District. A man who has been working about the reservoir and has spent most of his time in that section, says that during the past year he has noticed no less than eleven heavy shocks of earthquakes there. Everything shows that there have been heavy quakings of the earth and many volcanic eruptions in the vicinity. South of the Eclipse mine is a small lake, in the center of which is to be seen standing a large pine tree, half the length of which is buried under the water of the lake. All who own mines in the district feel satisfied that they have a good thing. There are many Washoe people there and more constantly arriving.

MURDERED.—A gentleman who has just come in from the Jordan Creek road to the Montana mines, informs the Enterprise that his party found at Queen River station the body of a German named Rufe, formerly a cook in Virginia City. He is supposed to have been murdered for some $600 which he had on his person, and as the wound was inflicted in the region of the heart with a knife, it is thought that a white man was the assassin.

SERIOUS ACCIDENT.—The San Jose Courier, states that a young man employed on a steam threshing machine at Cardiff's place about nine miles out on the Almaden road, had his right arm broken and his hand seriously injured from being caught between the band and drum of the cylinder. The machine was stopped, and so great was the pressure, that had there been a little more steam on the machine his arm would have been torn entirely off.

CALIFORNIANS should test the merits of DR. HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS. While it is highly palatable as a beverage, it is unequalled as a tonic and invigorator. In the pursuit of fortune at the mines, many persons are exposed to the attacks of complaints of the digestives organs, and various kinds of fever. It is the very article that has so long been in demand in the mines Its daily use will restore the tone of a deranged stomach, impart fresh vitality to the digestive functions, and cheer the spirits. Yet the Bitters is the safest of all stimulants. Let the miner who is exposed to hot and dry, wet and cold, be certain to obtain a supply of the genuine Hostetter Bitter, and he will find it a certain safeguard to health.

HOPE FOR THE AFFLICTED.—In another part of this paper will be found the advertisement of the celebrated Institute established by Dr. J. C. Young, in 1850. In this age of deceit and charlatanism it is a boon to the suffering to point out to them where they are sure of obtaining the wished for relief and cure. Under the care of the skillful Doctor the sick and troubled can divest themselves of their burdens of pain; lay aside their cross, and secure health and happiness. If you are sick or in trouble, do not hesitate. Read the advertisement and follow the advice. Do not forget the number nor the manner of directing your letters. Medical Advice.—DR. WM. K. DOHERTY'S Medical and Surgical Institute is becoming a sine qua non to the welfare of our State and health of our citizens; and his rapidly spreading reputation, although it may excite surprise, is but the signal of skill, and follows as the natural result of such a cause. We are personally acquainted with gentlemen who had suffered for years under chronic disease, and who had taken advantage of every available means that promised relief, but without success, until they called upon Dr. Doherty who, in an incredibly short space of time, has given them entire relief. It is gratifying to announce this fact, because the Dr. is a gentleman who seeks, not by defamation of others, to establish his reputation or ruin of another's fame. The Doctor conducts his own Institute in such a manner that must be gratifying to all his patients. He examines, advises, and recommends without charge, and the patient, after hearing his terms for treatment, can accept or reject at pleasure. In no case does the Doctor make a charge, unless he effects a cure. This he is able to do, because he feels the confidence which long experience has given, and no doubt the consolation which appertains to that confidence. Persons afflicted with either acute or chronic disease, would do well to consult the Doctor; at all events it can do no harm, as for consultation he asks no fee, nor does he insist on obedience to his advice unless the patient places himself under his care. His offices are on Sacramento street, opposite the Pacific Mail Steamship office.—S. F. News.

EVENING HYMN.

BY ADELAIDE PROCTER.

The shadows of the evening hours
Fall from the darkening sky;
Upon the fragrance of the flowers
The dews of evening lie;
Before Thy throne, O Lord of Heaven,
We kneel at close of day;
Look on thy children from on high,
And hear us while we pray.

The sorrows of Thy Servants, Lord,
Oh, do not thou despise;
But let the incense of our prayers
Before Thy mercy rise;
The brightness of the coming night
Upon the darkness rolls:
With hopes of future glory chase
The shadows on our souls.

Slowly the rays of daylight fade;
So fade within our heart,
The hopes in earthly love and joy,
That one by one depart:
Slowly the bright stars, one by one,
Within the Heavens shine,—
Give us, O Lord, fresh hopes in Heaven,
And trust in things divine.

Let peace, O Lord, Thy peace, O God,
Upon our souls descend;
From midnight fears and perils Thou
Our trembling hearts defend;
Give us a re-pite from our toil,
Calm and subdue our woes;
Thr ugh the long day we suffer, Lord,
Oh, give us now repose!

THE CREED.—We conclude our selection from the Hand-Book, this week with the publication of the Creed which it sets forth. This creed is essentially the same as that of all Congregational churches the world over, and yet each one of all these churches freely chooses and adopts its own creed. No power on earth can prescribe a single doctrine for even the weakest and feeblest church. But this never leads to confusion. Our churches hold the same faith, and hold it all the more firmly, that they are not compelled to accept any of the doctrines of the church. While the Episcopal Church or Church of England is convulsed and distracted by the doctrines of a Bishop Colenso and the Authors of the "Essays and Reviews," we find no such heretical doctrines held by Congregational Clergymen or laymen, and yet each one is free from any of the authority exercised oqer his faith by church courts and dignitaries. Every minister of the Congregational faith is accountable to Christ the "Great Head of the Church" for his faith and practice, and is not bound by any mere earthly authority, and if we are allowed to judge the churches by their fruits, this would seem to be the only way to secure unity of faith among Chrisian teachers. There is not a Congregational Colenso or sympatiser with authors of the "Essays and Reviews," in the world. These errorists remain in the church of England and do what they can to destroy the faith of that Church. They would at once loose all influence as Congregationalists, for the church would exclude them from their pulpits and the ministers would refuse to fellowship them in their Associations. Thus the facts show that the Congregational creed remains pure and her misiters are true to her creed, with no authorities to control them.

FURNISHING THE CHURCH.—We are informed that the party on the evening of the Fourth netted money enough to make up the balance due on the furniture, carpets, &c., for the new church, and to pay the freight on the same from San Francisco, and so we may soon expect their arrival in Dutch Flat. The devoted ladies who have toiled so hard and made so many efforts to raise money for this praiseworthy purpose may now congratulate themselves that the day of their complete triumph over every obstacle to success in this great undertaking is near hand. When the last tack is driven in the carpet and the last finishing touch is given to the other articles, we want to be there—to see the joy and gratitude which these faithful ladies must feel to see a hard task so well completed. At the proper time we hope to make a public record of the work they have done, the money they have raised and what they have procured with it for the comfort and improvement of our community. In no community, large or small, with which we have any acquaintance, have we ever seen such courage displayed, and such zeal, as the ladies of Dutch Flat have shown in raising means to furnish the new Union Church.

DEDICATION.—We believe it is proposed to dedicate the new church on the fifth Sabbath, the 30th, of this month. Invitations have been extended to clergymen of different denominations to be present and take part in the services of dedication. It will no doubt be an occasion of much interest, and we wish to give the public timely notice. We will give further notice of it when we learn what clergymen will be here.

PREACHING IN GOLD RUN.—For four weeks we have not been able to meet the people of Gold Run, as usual on Sunday afternoon; but we hope to preach there on the 16th, the third Sunday of the month, at half past two o'clok P. M., provided, it does not interfere with any other appointment.

TO THE GOLD RUN SUNDAY SCHOOL.—The Superintendent of the Dutch Flat Union Sunday School informs us that there are quite a number of new Sunday school books, in his hands, enough to supply the Gold Run school for the present, which he will sell them on very reasonable terms. Not being able to meet the Gold Run Sunday School last Sunday, we take this method of sending them word.

MEETING AT THE SCHOOLHOUSE. We hope the people of our place will learn by next Sabbath that the School-house is again ready for use as a place of worship, and that a full house will be an agreeable thing for the minister next Sabbath morning at half past ten o'clock. Try to keep up courage a few sabbaths more and then you will have a church to meet in.

CONGREGATIONAL HAND-BOOK.

VIII.—CONFESSION OF FAITH.

You believe in God the Father Almighty, infinite and perfect, the maker and Governor of heaven and earth;

That the Scriptures of the Old and New Testament were given by His inspiration, and are the infallible rule of faith and duty;

That God is revealed in the Scriptures as the Father, the Son and the Holy Ghost, eternally Three and yet One;

That He created and governs all things so as to secure by them, for His glory, the holy, wise, and benevolent purposes of His will;

That man was by nature holy; that by his own choice he fell away from God, and so sin, suffering, and death came into the world, and all men do become unholy and guilty;

That Jesus Christ, God's only Son, our Lord, by His humiliation, suffering, and death has made an atonement for the guilt of the race, and that all who repent and believe in Him. receive the forgiveness of sin, and the life everlasting;

That none repent and believe who are not specially called by the Holy Spirit, and that those thus called are kept by the dower of God through faith unto salvation.

That the Lord's Day is to be observed as a Holy day and that Baptism and the Lord's Suppper are the sacraments of the church, the latter to be administered to believers only, the former only to them and their household;

That our Lord Jesus Christ, rose again from the grave, ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence He shall come to judge the quick and the dead, and that the wicked shall go away into everlasting punishment and the righteous into life eternal.

IN the knowledge of God is the only the only true wisdom; in the service of God, the only true, freedom; in the love of God, the only true felicity: and these are all so vast, that though they have their seed-time on earth, room for the harvest can be found only in an eternal heaven.

THE MORALS OF THE CAPTURE.—The capture of Jeff. Davis will be regarded in a great variety of aspects. The ridiculous aspect will probably strike the mass of the people first, and while this view of the case is uppermost, an ex hange suggests the following moral reflections:

"Don't get married. Had no J. D. been encumbered with a large wife and family—we mean a wife and large family—he could easily have made his escape.

Swap even. If you take your wife's petticoats, give your boots. A pair of Mrs. D.'s balmorals would not have betrayed her liege.

Keep your temper. If the captors of the 'President' had not controlled their angry passions, he would have 'hurt some of 'em.'

Be magnanimous. The energetic pursuit of the Davis family has seriously wounded the feelings of the 'stern statesman.'

Keep moving. If Wilson's cavalry had measured their day's march with a red tape line, J. D. would have given them the slip.

Don't be a coward. J. D. came to grief from his unwillingness to die in the breeches.

Always wear the best. A few more springs in Mr. Davis' hoop skirt might have saved him.

Cultivate the sports of boyhood. In the race at Irwinsville, every Michigan boy showed that he could beat a hoop.

Traitors are always betrayed. J. D. fled to the woods for protection, but they proved to be treesunable.

"Wife, I am to live but a few hours at most—I shall soon be in Heaven."

"You—you'll never be any nearer than you are now to heaven, you old brute! You'd look well stuck in Heaven. I think I see you there now."

"Dolphus, Dolphus," hoarsely growled the old man, "bring me my cane and let me larrup the old trollop once more before I die."

A WOMAN called on an attorney in Williamsport, Pa., and requested his assistance in collecting bounty and pay for two husbands who had been killed during the Rebellion. Her third husband accompanied her.

THE "Echoes of Purgatory" is the title of a cheerful paper printed at Bologna. The title and place of publication suggests something highly seasoned.

MISCELLANEOUS ADVERTISEMENTS.

QUICK CURES AND SMALL CHARGES

THE ELECTROPATHIC INSTITUTE,
645 Washington St., San Francisco,
ESTABLISHED FEBRUARY, 1860, BY AN ASSOCIATION OF SCIENTIFIC GENTLEMEN, FOR CURE OF DISEASES AND THE SUPPRESSION OF QUACKERY.

Truths for the Afflicted.

This splendid establishment was inaugurated in February, 1860, by an association of Scientific gentlemen, that there might be a Medical Establishment in San Francisco, where the afflicted could find scientific and honorable, as well as humane treatment. Outrageous Quackery had so long run rampant over afflicted humanity that all confidence was being lost in the Medical Profession, and it was time that there should be an Institute where the afflicted could apply with the certainty of honorable and Scientific treatment. And the result has thus far exceeded the most sa guine expectations of its founders.

Thousands have been made to rejoice in returned health, who had been trifled with by the numerous vampires that abound upon this coast, the chief of whom has been obliged to cl se out and leave the country; but still there are some left of whom the afflicted should beware.

The basis of the treatment at the Institute is the Electropathic System. The Physician and Surgeon who has been a Professor in one of the best Medical Colleges in America, and who has made a special study of Chronic Diseases for the last fifteen years, is thoroughly qualified to treat by medicine, and will warrant a perfect and permanent cure in the shortest possible time. All long-standing cases of disease no matter what may be their nature, give way under the course of treatment pursued at the Institute, and the result is perfect health and a strengthened constitution where it has been injured.

It would be useless to enumerate the diseases, as it would be occupying space to no purpose. Every nameable complaint to which humanity is liable can be cured by the Faculty at the Institute.

No mercury is used upon any consideration. All medicines prescribed are vegetable, and in cases where the patient can remain in the city, and wishes to be treated by Electricity, no medicines will be used. All medicines are electrized, which makes them much more active, and destroys all nauseous taste, making them as palatable as wine.

The Directors wish to speak of specialities more extensively than of other complaints, because empirics have used more deception about them than they have about the regular troubles of the human family. And first on the list is that dreadful malady denominated Seminal Weakness, or Spermatorrhœa, a complaint which not only affects the body with pain and lassitude, making life a burden, but affects the brain, creating Insanity. It drives more men to the mad house than all other diseases added together. By the Electropathic System this terrible trouble gives way, and the hitherto emaciated victim is made to rejoice in perfect health.

Next upon the list is Venereal, in all of its terrible forms and phases.

It is impossible to paint this disease in colors sufficiently terrible to do it justice. It is the most awful disease to which the human family is liable, and if not arrested when active, making him a loathsome mass of living corruption. It is also one of the most insidious diseases in the world. While the exterior shows no symptom, the horrible disease is sapping the foundations of life, preparing to attack its vital parts, as soon as the patient shall by some indiscretion weaken the system. Reader, if you have ever had this awful disease in any form whatever, call at once at the Institute, and the physician there will examine you and tell you if you have any of the virus in your blood. In such cases consultations are always gratis, and should you have any of the dreadful complaint about you, a cure will be warranted in a short time, or no charges will be made for services.

Strictures.

This terrible affection, which badly affects the nervous system as to prevent sound and health giving sleep, should be attended to in its early stages, or an operation both painful and dangerous will have to be resorted to. It is usually first indicated by darting pains in the parts, but very light and hardly noticeable at first, increasing gradually, until they become troublesome, sometimes accompanied by slight irritations in the passage of urine.—A quick cure is easily performed at the Institute if early application is made.

To Females.

Your delicate organizations should be treated with great scientific care. At the Institute you will find a kind physician, who can at once discover your disease or trouble, and sympatize with you in your affliction. Should you be irregular you can get relief, no matter what may be the cause. You need not fear to call on account of the delicacy of consultation for the utmost secrecy will be insured at all times, and the resident physician will treat you in the most honorable manner, giving you all the assistance and advice, both medical and surgical, that you may require. Private apartments, especially for Ladies.

Preventive.

Dr. J. H. Josselyn's celebrated Preventive for married ladies can be obtained only at the Institute. Price, Ten Dollars.

Warranted to prevent pregnancy. Can be used without any inconvenience, and is good for one year if directions are followed.

This Magnetic Preventive is not injurious, but is conducive to health, and can be used without the knowledge of any one but the party using it.

To sum up, there is no place where the medical profession is practiced in the State of California, wherein the same amount of scientific attainments are employed, and, consequently, where the afflicted can be so well treated, and be as sure of a cure, as at the Electropathic Institute, 645 Washington street, (south side,) a few doors below Kearny.

Reader, if you are sick and need medical assistance call there before employing any one else, and judge for yourself. You will there find the best consulting, as well as the best operating talent in the State, together with the only Electropathic Instrument that can be depended upon in the curative process.

Medicine sent to all parts of the State, Oregon and Nevada, upon the receipt of a letter describing the case.

All letters must be directed to J. H. JOSSELYN, M. D., Resident Physician, Electropathic Institute.

Dr. H. JOSSELYN has no connection with any other establishment or Institute in this city.

All letters answered with promptness and pleasure, and the utmost secrecy observed. Address

J. H. JOSELYN, M. D.

PRIVATE MEDICAL AID.
Quick Cures and Moderate Charges.
DR. W. K. DOHERTY'S
Private Medical and Surgical Institute,
Sacramento Street, below Montgomery, opposite the Pacific Mail Steamship Co.'s Office. Private entrance on Leidesdorff st., San Francisco.
Established expressly to afford the afflicted sound and Scientific Medical Aid, in the treatment and cure of all Private and Chronic Diseases, cases of secrecy and all Sexual Diseases.

To the Afflicted.

DR. W. K. DOHERTY returns his sincere thanks to his numerous patients for their patronage, and would take this opportunity to remind them that he continues to consult at his Institute for the cure of chronic diseases of the Lungs, Liver, Kidneys, Digestive and Genito-Urinary Organs, and all private diseases, viz: Syphilis in all its forms and stages, Seminal Weakness, and all the horrid consequences of self-abuse, Gonorrhœa, Gleet, Strictures, Nocturnal and Diurnal Emissions, Sexual Debility, Diseases of the Back and Loins, Inflammation of the Bladder and Kidneys, etc., etc., and he hopes that his long experience and successful practice will continue to ensure him a share of public patronage. By the practice of many years in Europe and the United States, he is enabled to apply the most efficient and successful remedies against diseases of all kinds. He uses no mercury, charges moderate, treats his patients in a correct and honorable way, and has references from men of known respectability and high standing in society. All parties consulting him, by letter or otherwise, will receive the best and gentlest treatment and implicit secrecy.

Dr. DOHERTY would call attention to the following certificates from two of his patients, who having fully recovered their health, desire to make known their remedial agent. It will be seen their statements are fully authenticated by a Notary Public.

The welfare of society imperiously demand their publicity, and they are given more to warn the unwary than to sound the praises of a Physician, of whom hundreds of like cases can be cited, during a practice of more than fifteen years.

Dr. Doherty—Dear Sir: I feel my health so fully restored, that in common gratitude, I believe I should make you some written acknowledgment for your valuable services—particularly so as your fee was small for the work performed.

I arrived in this city from the East about one year ago, and was then suffering from an old case of Gleet, complicated with Stricture. Being a stranger in this city, and believing those Doctors who gave such positive assurances of success were necessarily the best (some of whom have a large number of titles), I placed myself in their charge and continued under their treatment until I had lost nearly all hope and a considerable sum of money.

I wish to say now that you are the sixth Doctor I have employed, and the only one that has ever done me any service. My Gleet is wholly cured, the Stricture is all removed, and my general health is better than it has been for years.

In conclusion I would say to the many unfortunates who require medical advice, if you have any doubt as to whom you may employ, ask Dr. Doherty for my address and call and see me. (I keep store in this city.) My experience may save you many dollars.

I would also add that in the early stage of my disease, I used a large amount of the preparations advertised as an infallible cure for Gonorrhœa, Gleet, etc., but never derived any benefit from them.

I am, Doctor, very truly yours,
L—— H——.

SEMINAL WEAKNESS—A SWORN-TO CERTIFICATE OF MOST REMARKABLE CURE OF SPERMATORRHŒA.

A desire to benefit humanity, and a feeling of gratitude to Dr. W. K. Doherty, alone induces me to make this statement. For many years I have been afflicted with that fearful disease known as "Spermatorrhœa" or Seminal Weakness, the result of selfabuse, but till 1855 experienced but little trouble or inconvenience. In that year, however, I had Seminal weakness to an alarming extent, which was soon followed by the most alarming symptoms, as weakness of the back and limbs, pain in the head, dimness of vision, nervousness and general debility. My mind, too, was afflicted to such an extent as to seriously impair my memory; my ideas were confused and spirits depressed. I was averse to society, had evil forebodings and self-distrust, and was entirely unfitted for any of the duties of life. From 1855 to the summer of 1863, I employed the very best medical talent I could find, and spent several hundred dollars, but in no instance obtained more than temporary relief. I had about concluded there was no relief for me in this world, but seeing Dr. Doherty's advertisement, I thought I would call and see him, as he charged nothing for consultation. I had an interview with Dr. Doherty at his office, in Sacramento street, and his fee for treatment was so reasonable, I determined to try him, though I did not expect much benefit from his treatment. On the 5th of December last I placed myself under his care; in one week I found myself very much improved, and now, after five weeks' treatment, I feel myself thoroughly cured of all my troubles and in the enjoyment of the best health. Hoping that my experience may be of benefit to others similarly afflicted, I subscribe myself JAMES JOHNSTON.

Subscribed and sworn to before me, this 15th day of January, A. D. 1864.
[L. S.] A. G. RANDALL, Notary Public.

To Females.

When a female is in trouble, or afflicted with disease, as weakness of the back and limbs, pain in the head, dimness of sight, loss of muscular power, palpitation of the heart, irritability, nervousness, extreme urinary difficulties, derangement of digestive functions, general debility, vaginitis, all diseases of the womb, hysteria, sterility, and all other diseases peculiar to females, they should go or write at once to the celebrated female doctor, W. K. Doherty, at his Medical Institute, and consult him about their troubles and disease. The Doctor is effecting more cures than any other Physician in the State of California. Let no false delicacy prevent you, but apply immediately and save yourself from painful sufferings and premature death. All Married Ladies, whose delicate health or other circumstances prevent an increase in their families, should write or call at Dr. W. K. Doherty's Medical Institute, and they will receive every possible relief and help. The Doctor's offices are so arranged that he can be consulted without fear of observation.

To Correspondents.

Patients residing in any part of the State, however distant, who may desire the opinion and advice of Dr. Doherty on their respective cases, and who think proper to submit a written statement of such, in preference to holding a personal interview, are respectfully assured that their communications will be held most sacred. Dr. Doherty takes this opportunity of observing, that all letters are only opened and replied to by himself, and the latter as promptly as possible.

If the case be fully and candidly described, and the usual fee of ten dollars enclosed, (by express or in a registered letter) personal communication will be superseded, as instructions for diet, regimen, and the general treatment of the case itself (including the remedies), will be forwarded without delay, and in such a manner as to convey no purport of the letter or parcel so transmitted.

AND HAPPINESS

NOT A FEW

Of the worst disorders that afflict mankind arise from the corruption that accumulates in the Blood. Of all the discoveries that have been made to purge it out, none can equal in effect HELMBOLD'S COMPOUND EXTRACT OF SARSAPARILLA. It cleanses and renovates the Blood, instills the vigor of health into the system, and purges out the humors which make disease. It stimulates the healthy functions of the body, and expels the disorders that grow and rankle in the Blood. Such a remedy, that could be relied on, has long been sought for, and now, for the first time, the public have one on which they can depend. Our space here does not admit of certificates to show its effects, but the trial of a single bottle will show to the sick that it has virtues surpassing anything they have ever taken.

Two tablespoonsful of the Extract of Sarsaparilla, added to a pint of water, is equal to the Lisbon Diet Drink, and one bottle is equal to a gallon of the Syrup of Sarsaparilla, or the decoction as usually made.

The above Extracts are prepared on purely scientific principles—in Vacuo—and embody the full strength of the ingredients entering into their composition. A ready and conclusive test will be a comparison of their properties with those set forth in the U. S. Dispensatory.

HOW TO USE THE REMEDIES.

In Diseases of the Blood, Humors on the Face, or any and every part of the body, use Extract Sarsaparilla, applying to Pimples and all external Humors or Eruptions the Improved Rose Wash.

THIS CELEBRATED INSTITUTE

has enjoyed on this coast an uninterrupted success of fourteen years, and has become one of the renowned Hospitals of the age. What the celebrated Lock Hospital is to London, and the no less renowned establishment of Ricord is to Paris, this Institute has become to the Pacific coast. The thousands annually received and cured place it in point of number of patients among the very first of the world, and the success of its treatment ranks it second to none.

PRIVATE DISEASES IN MALES and IRREGULARITIES IN FEMALES are the great destroyers of health. They insidiously attack the system and gradually undermine and destroy it; they drive the bloom from the cheek, the lustre from the eye, the strength and vigor from the frame; they give to the world puny and diseased offspring, and poison, through successive generations the race of man. The marks can be seen in Scrofula, Consumption, Cripples, the Idiotic, the Paralytic, the Insane, etc.

There is no more terrible scourge to the human race than those diseases arising from the contamination of Venerial Poison. The mildest forms, by retreating to the blood, hold ever over the one afflicted, the sword of destruction that is liable at any moment to fall and blight—to utterly destroy—all earthly hopes.

MERCURY, recognized as the most fatal medical enemy to man, combining with the Venerial, doubles in dangers. Those who have been treated with that pernicious mineral poison are not cured: the disease has only assumed a new form.

Do not be Satisfied with Partial Cures that leave the poison to crawl through the system, eating its way into the tissues and organs beneath the apparently smooth surface, to burst out in the future with a virulence that will baffle the effects of medicine. WHEN PERFECT CURES can be obtained by consulting a physician whom long practice and thorough investigation into the causes of DISEASES of the URINARY ORGANS enables to determine at once the nature of the disease.

In all discasses entrusted to the Doctor's care, PERFECT, SPEEDY and PERMANENT.

Cures are always Guaranteed.

SEMINAL WEAKNESS OR SPERMATORRHŒA.

The young man who experiences that growing weakness in his muscular and mental organization should stop to consider whence it arises. He will find in the weakness of the back, trembling of the limbs, disordered digestion, unaccountable failing of the powers of the mind, distaste for society, dread of impending trouble, forebodings of evil sleeplessness, troubled and lacivious dreams accompanied by growing deafness, loss of muscular power, and numerous other symptoms of disorganization, the positive traces of that most terrible and destructive of all diseases, Seminal Weakness—wasting away his powers, destroying his hope of life and manhood, and dragging him along the broken path of his existence toward a premature and loathsome grave. To him who finds his life dribbling out in the discharge of the vital principal of existence in nocturnal and diurnal emissions the mere cessation of its appearance brings no assurance of relief.

Marriage, that holy office, the safeguard and hope of manhood, brings to such an one no hope of cure, but adds to his misery in the knowledge that the one who looks to him for so much of her happiness, is a victim of his evil, and an innocent companion of his punishment. He adds to his misery and disorder until hope leaves him. There is no rescue except in proper and skillful treatment. Consult then, at once, a physician whom long practice and careful research has made thoroughly conversant with every phase of the disease. Those who have become the victims of solitary vices, that dreadful, fascinating and destructive habit, which fills thousands of sick rooms with paralytics and consumptives, and hundreds of untimely graves with its misguided victims, should consult, without a moment's delay, one who will sympathize with their sufferings. To such the Doctor would especially address himself, giving to each and all assurance of a PERFECT and PERMANENT CURE, without hindrance from business, change of diet, or fear of exposure.

Do not forget the address. See below.

Important to Females.

When a female is in trouble or afflicted with disease, and requires medical or surgical assistance, the enquiry should be, Where is there a physician who is fully competent to administer relief, and whose respectable standing in society recommends him to the confidence of the community? The Doctor, understanding how imperatively necessary these requirements are, feels called upon to interpose, and by the attention of the afflicted to the fact that he has been a Professor of Obstetrics and Female Diseases for twenty years, and is fully qualified to administer in all cases, both medically and surgically, not in a superficial manner, but in as thorough a manner as years of study and practice—both in hospitals and private families—can make, to save them from the hands of the unqualified, unscrupulous and designing. Therefore families can rely upon him as upon a father. All in affliction can find in him one who can feel and sympathize with and befriend them in trouble—one in whose secrecy and the utmost confidence can be placed. Consultation, by letter or otherwise, Free. See address below.
